Presentation and Regulation

The LAMS

The Art Music and Entertainment Workshop is a non-profit social cooperative that works in the musical and educational field since 1989.

The LAMS aspires to a society where the music teaching and the formation are at the center of social life, as individual growth instrument and enrichment of interpersonal relationships. It has always wanted to provide a valid contribution for music to become more and more a universal language, to realize the intergenerational confrontation and to reduce the distances between peoples.

It realizes its activities in 3 fields:

- concert activity (concert orchestral and chamber music season with great artists and starting of new careers);
- young talents promotion (with the International Competition of Matera for young musicians and the International Competitions of Composition);
- formation (with the Music School, the Advanced Courses, the Educational projects for the schools and the activation in Basilicata and Taranto of the “Sistema Abreu” through the creation of youth and infant orchestras).

Among the project partners of the Lams in all these years we mention: Filarmonica della Scala, Rai Radio Tre, Ricordi-Universal, SIAE, SugarMusic-Suvini Zerboni with the institutional supporters Ministry of Heritage and Cultural Activities, Presidency of the Council of Ministers, Basilicata Region, Municipalities of Matera, Montescaglioso, Pomarico, Taranto.

Among the artists we mention: Magnus Lindberg, Ivan Fedele, Azio Corghi, Unsuk Chin, Detlev Glanert, Andrea Lucchesini, Francesco Manara, Emanuele Arciuli, Sandro Laffranchini, Massimo Polidori, Alessio Allegrini, Marco Pierobon, Francesco D’Orazio, Paolo Fresu, Max Gazzè, Fabrizio Bosso, Coro Giovanile Italiano.

For the official manifest of initiatives for Matera European Capital of Culture 2019, the Lams has been selected by the Matera-Basilicata 2019 Foundation to co-produce great events of contemporary music, commissioning new works to great composers of our time: Nicola Campogrande (who composed the “Missa Vox Dei” for choir and orchestra), Damiano D’Ambrosio (with “Stupor Mundi”, symphonic paintings for mezzo-soprano and orchestra) and Georg Friedrich Haas (“the most important living composer in the world”, Classic Voice). The work composed by Haas “Musiche per Matera” won the Premio Abbiati of music criticism as “best novelty for Italy” and it has been included by Il giornale della musica between the top 10 concerts of the year 2019, with Teatro alla Scala, Wiener Philharmoniker, Accademia di Santa Cecilia).

For the International Competition of Composition ITALIA 150 the Lams has received the Patronage and the Plate of Representation of the President of the Republic.

Art. 1 - Online edition

After the great success of the latest editions, the Lams Matera Award – International Festival/Contest for young musicians (called “Rosa Ponselle” until 2018) reaches the twenty-first edition and it is part of the many LAMS artistic and cultural initiatives, with the patronage of the Ministry of Heritage and Cultural Activities, of Basilicata Region, of Matera Municipality, of Matera Province.

The field of the promotion of young musicians remains an area in which the Lams wants to invest in order to stimulate more and more the growth of artistic wealth and potentiality, local and not, of the new generations. The Award is intended to disseminate the musical culture, to offer to the competitors an important occasion of verifications of one’s abilities, through the comparison and the fair competition, consolidating and promoting the cultural tourism for the knowledge of Matera and of the whole Basilicata. The LAMS MATERA Awards will be in online modality, from 27 to 29 December 2021, on the Facebook page and on the YouTube canal of Lams.
